

Congress Sets Thursday for Adjournment

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., said today leaders have set a Thursday night target for adjournment of Congress.

Humphrey, the Senate's assistant Democratic leader, said after the party's congressional leaders met with President Kennedy that he believes the goal can be reached.

But Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, told of Humphrey's Thursday prediction, replied: "What week?"

House Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., said after the White House meeting that every effort is being made to "get through this week." He said the record of this Congress is "a remarkable one."

Discussing the record of the Congress, McCormack said that of 108 major bills recommended by Kennedy during its two-year term, Congress has approved 73.

When a reporter directed a question to Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., as to what the President's plans were for the Congress-passed pension bill for the self-employed, McCormack broke in quickly to say that this bill wasn't discussed during the breakfast session. Then he quickly ended the brief session with reporters.

The pension bill is on the President's desk awaiting his action with a Wednesday midnight deadline. If Congress adjourns before then, the President could kill the bill by not signing it, a device known as the pocket veto. With Congress in session, the bill would become law automatically if the President did not sign or veto it.

At the Capitol, legislative activity was down to almost a complete halt.

Uganda Gets Freedom, Flag Raised

By LYNN HEINZERLING

KAMPALA, Uganda (AP)—The red, yellow and black flag of the independent Uganda was raised before dawn today as tom-toms beat a steady rhythm and bonfires glowed in the hills.

More than 40,000 watched the new flag replace the Union Jack in a ceremony ending more than 60 years of British colonial rule of the east Africa territory. Women in their crowns massed in and around Kololo Stadium showed their approval with shrill cries.

While bands played predominantly military music, Negro and white musicians also had the gay independence crowd swinging to "When the Saints Go Marching In" and "Swanee," as Uganda became Africa's 33rd independent nation in the midnight ceremony.

The Duke and Duchess of Kent, representing Queen Elizabeth II, were presented with a harp, the traditional Buganda musical instrument, a walking stick and animal skins.

The stadium was hushed as the battalion of the Uganda unit of the Queen's African Rifles, which has served Britain in two wars, turned its colors over to the Ugandan Rifles, the new nation's army. British officers who trained the smart fighting unit will remain with the army for the present.

Prime Minister Milton Obote, who heads the new federal government, was given a salute by the new Uganda army unit. He faces the delicate task of holding the five states and 11 administrative districts together.

The British made a special effort to prepare the Ugandans for their new status. There are 500 to 600 college graduates in the country, although 70 per cent of the population of 5 million is illiterate.

NEW YORK (AP)—The fifth World Series game was postponed today because of rain after a delay of more than an hour. It will be played Wednesday at Yankee Stadium.

The postponement was the first in a Series since Oct. 4, 1956 when the second game of the New York Yankees-Brooklyn Dodger Series was washed out in Brooklyn.

With the San Francisco Giants and New York Yankees all even at two wins each, Jack Sanford (24-7) had been scheduled to pitch for the Giants against Ralph Terry (23-12), the man he beat 2-0 in the second game.

The rainout simply shoved back the schedule of remaining games. After Wednesday's fifth game at New York, there will be an off day for travel Thursday. The sixth game will be played in San Francisco Friday and the seventh, if necessary, Saturday at San Francisco.

The game was called off by Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick after a delay of 71 minutes. The last time there was a rainout the Yankees benefitted. Whitey Ford had been knocked out in the opener and it rained out the second game. Ford was able to come back in the third game, which he won, and the Yanks went on to win the Series 4-3.

Newspapers Are Seized in Caracas

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—The Venezuelan government today seized two leftist dailies and imposed censorship on the rest of the country's newspapers and television-radio stations.

The stiff restrictions came after 150 suspected terrorists were arrested in a roundup of Communist and fellow travelers blamed for a wave of sniping and bombing.

President Romulo Betancourt ordered police to occupy the plants of Labora and Clarin. The two newspapers support the leftist Union Republicana Democratica party and have been accused by the government of receiving money from the Communist party.

The Interior Ministry warned other newspapers and television-radio stations against reporting movements of armed forces and police and about disturbances without getting official approval.

Outgoing dispatches of foreign correspondents were not included in the censorship.

The roundup of 150 suspected terrorists came after a new flare-up of violence that has plagued the Betancourt regime.

Effort to Better Relations

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer said today West Germany is making efforts to improve its relations with the Soviet Union.

The chancellor, 88, said these efforts can succeed only if the Soviet Union changes its policy so that mutual problems can be resolved peacefully. He said this would have to mean an improvement in conditions in Communist East Germany.

Adenauer was delivering the government's annual statement of policy at the opening of the fall session of the Bundestag, the lower house of Parliament.

"I affirm that our government is ready to discuss many things (with the Soviet Union) if our brothers in the zone (East Germany) can arrange their lives as they please," he said.

Judge to Up Fine in Local Liquor Cases

Toddy Municipal Judge John L. Wilson issued a warning to those who drink intoxicating beverages and then get out in their automobiles and drive up and down the highways of Hempstead County.

Judge Wilson said that after the first of November, 1962, the fine for a first offense or driving while intoxicated would be $100 if there is no personal injury or property damage instead of the $50 that has been the practice in the past. There will be a compulsory jail sentence of one day and the offender's driver's license will be suspended for 30 days. If an individual is apprehended, charged and convicted of driving while under the influence of liquor or other alcoholic beverages for a second time with one year, the penalty will be $350, a 15-day jail sentence and suspension of one year of the person's right to drive provided he is convicted and provided there is no injury to person or property.

Judge Wilson also indicated that other liquor violations, with the exception of drunkenness, would no longer bring the minimum fine in all cases. He indicated that in all matters concerning the illicit sale and/or possession of either bonded or moonshine whiskey that stiffer penalties would be inflicted.

In a statement the municipal judge said:

"Violations of our liquor laws are very serious matters. This is particularly true in cases where a driver of an automobile chooses to drink. An automobile is one of the more dangerous weapons in our society when used wrongfully. It has killed and injured more people than all of the wars that the United States has ever fought put together, including the devastation of the atomic bomb. Therefore, when a driver is so careless and so unmindful of the safety of others on the highways and on the streets and even on the sidewalks of this city and county, then he should be required to respond to society by paying more than the minimum.

"This county has chosen to be a dry county by more than three to one. Therefore, those persons who engage in the illicit traffic of liquor are going against the great majority of the people. I believe that in this country the people rule and that their wishes, as expressed at the ballot box, should be carefully protected. In the future all cases of liquor violations, with the exception of drunkenness, will be dealt with more severely.

"I think that a public statement should be made so the would-be violators can be warned that if they are going to violate the law governing the sale, possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages they may know a more severe penalty will be imposed."

Heads Judges

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Municipal Judges Council elected Judge W. L. Ward Jr., of Marianna, as president Monday. Judge Ted Goldman of Texarkana was named vice president and Judge W. H. Schulze of Russellville secretary-treasurer. The judges held their annual meeting in connection with the Arkansas Municipal League convention.

Carr, will address the John Cain Chapter of Hope at a 2 p.m. meeting, Wednesday, Oct. 10, in the home of Mrs. Frank McLarty. Mrs. Carr will stress the three objectives for the year: Increased Membership; Study of the DAR Handbook and Better Publicity and Press Relations. A tea, honoring Mrs. Carr, will follow the meeting.

Negro and White Man Shoot It Out

LONOKE, Ark. (AP)—Five persons, including three bystanders, were wounded Monday when a white man and a Negro fired at one another on Highway 70 near the Pulaski County line, Sheriff Warren Minton said.

Reginald Lindsey, a four-year-old Negro, was seriously hurt. Minton said James E. Crawley, about 45, of North Little Rock and Johnny Brown, a 19-year-old Negro of Lonoke, were involved in the actual shooting. Crawley was hit in the hand and Brown in the jaw.

Also wounded slightly were Mrs. Henry Bryant, about 40, Reginald's grandmother, and her daughter, Brenda Bryant, 5.

Minton said Brown's car and Crawley's pickup truck raced from North Little Rock to near the Bryant home. Brown stopped and tried to borrow a gun from the Bryants. Minton said, then he went about five miles to his home and got a shotgun while Crawley waited.

Minton said he was told Brown fired one shot and stray shotgun pellets apparently struck the bystanders. Crawley then fired nine shots from a .22 caliber pistol, hitting Brown once, the sheriff said.

No charges were filed immediately.

Jobless Pay Fraud Brings Sentence

Or a plea of guilty, Dollis L. Gulley, of Nevada County was fined $100 and costs and given 90 days in jail by Judge Lyle Brown in Nevada Circuit Court.

He was charged with obtaining unemployment compensation when he was not entitled to it. Judge Brown suspended the 90 day jail sentence when the defendant promised to behave in the future. Gulley had been working more than the minimum amount allowed under Arkansas law when he made application several weeks of unemployment pay. The case was handled at Prescott by Deputy Prosecuting Attorney R. D. Rouse.

Postmaster at Brinkley Dies

BRINKLEY, Ark. (AP)—J. D. Fowler, 70, retired postmaster at Brinkley, died Saturday at his home.

Funeral services were to be held at Brinkley today. Fowler was a veteran of World War I and had served as a district commander of the state American Legion.

Caution on Irregular Voting

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—William L. Spicer of Fort Smith, Republican State Committee Chairman, said in Little Rock Monday night the state GOP "is likely to blow the lid off" if voting irregularities show up in the general election Nov. 6.

Spicer told a Pulaski County Republican Women Club gathering that with Democrats in power the secret ballot has been "just a myth."

He said Republicans mean business.

"We must get an honest count," he said. "All of the money and time we have spent will be to no avail if we don't know what goes on when the ballots are counted."

Spicer promised that Republicans will get elected to some posts this year, and said Arkansas holds the key to the two-party system in the South.

Dr. Kenneth G. Jones of Little Rock, Republican candidate for the U.S. Senate, will get a surprising number of votes in the election, Spicer said.

"Not all of them will be 100 per cent for Jones," Spicer said, "but all of them will be 100 per cent against (Sen. J. William Fulbright)." Jones is opposing Fulbright's bid for election to a fourth term in the Senate.

Two Accidents Investigated

Two accidents were investigated by City Police here yesterday. One at Second and Hazel involved a car driven by Mrs. John Wilson and a Montgomery Market delivery truck driven by Tommie Montgomery. Officer Pedron said the Wilson car was heavily damaged. The truck wasn't damaged.

At North Pine and West Avenue, G vehicles driven by James C. Britton of Hope and Orville Aaron of Homer, La. collided with minor fender, bumper and light damage to both, reported Officers Smyard and Martin.

Local Option Has to Go on Ballot

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A ruling by Jackson Chancery Court that a local option liquor proposal must be placed on the Nov. election ballot was appealed Monday to the Arkansas Supreme Court.

The Jackson County Election Commission ruled the proposal off the ballot on grounds that a petition seeking the election was improperly filed.

The election concerns Glaze Township which now is legally wet.

More Fireworks Expected in UN Meeting

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—U.N. delegates look for more fireworks over Cuba following President Osvaldo Dorticos Torrado's blast against the United States. But there was no cue whether Cuba would try to put a formal complaint on the assembly agenda for debate.

Until Dorticos addressed the General Assembly on Monday, the U.S. delegation had the impression Fidel Castro's regime would not press its usual charge of aggression this year. But the bitterness of the Cuban president's assault left the Americans uncertain.

Dorticos gave no hint in his hour and 45-minute speech what strategy his delegation would pursue. He made a vague demand that the United Nations condemn as an act of war any U.S. blockade of his country.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko is expected to touch off a general East-West exchange when he takes the floor this week to answer Western charges that the Soviet military buildup in Cuba endangers peace in the Western Hemisphere.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson refused to answer Dorticos' accusations in the assembly Monday, since U.N. traditionally frowns on anyone debating a chief of state. He did take the floor long enough to accuse the Cuba leader of attacking the United States with "unparalleled calumnies, slanders and misrepresentations."

Stevenson told a news conference after the charges by Dorticos were "neither original nor true."

He stressed again that the United States would not attack Cuba but added: "Let it be equally clear that the United States will not tolerate aggression against any part of this hemisphere."

Stevenson branded as absurd Cuban charges that U.S. economic action against Castro's regime was either aggressive or warlike. Stevenson also leveled a warning at the Soviet Union.

"Let no one mistake the impact of this Soviet intervention in Cuba on the hope we all share for world peace," he said. "If the Soviet Union persists in the course it has chosen, if it continues to try to prevent the peaceful social revolution of the Americas, it will increasingly excite the deep indignation of the people of my country and of other American states."

Acquitted of Murder Charge

HARRISBURG, Ark. (AP)—Charles (Pete) Roberts, 49, of Weiner was acquitted of a first degree murder charge in Poinsett Circuit Court Monday.

Roberts, a former Waldenburg tavern operator was accused in the Oct. 30, 1961, fatal shooting of Tommy Jacob, 23, of near Weiner.

Roberts testified he fired after Jacob attacked him. Jacob was shot in the tavern parking lot.

Soblen Was Searched, British Say

By HAL R. COOPER

LONDON (AP)—A coroner's jury held today that Dr. Robert A. Soblen committed suicide by swallowing a sleeping potion hidden in a secret pocket of his trousers.

The fugitive collapsed Sept. 1 in an ambulance taking him to London airport to board an airliner for the United States, where he faced a life sentence as a spy for the Soviet Union.

He died five days later at Hillingdon Hospital without regaining consciousness.

A Scotland Yard detective testified Soblen apparently managed to conceal the sleeping pills in his clothing despite a minute search of his person just before he entered the ambulance.

Raps Critics of Policy on Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, has come up with a "warmonger" label for critics of Kennedy administration Cuban policies.

Young broke out the tag Monday for former Vice President Richard M. Nixon. Young told the Senate that by advocating "more action than President Kennedy has been giving" in Cuba, Nixon was calling for "some sort of military or naval action."

The outcome of such action, Young contended, could bring nuclear war or at least retaliation by the Soviets if one of their ships carrying supplies to Cuba were fired on.

Young's theme was that this is a time for deliberation, calculation and clear thinking and not for precipitous action.

The Ohio senator combined this with the assertion that any time it chose to do so the United States could destroy within hours any missile bases and artillery emplacements in Cuba.

Young's speech was considered significant because there was ample evidence the Kennedy administration wanted a voice raised in the Senate against the "do something about Cuba" chant which has been sounded primarily by Republicans in the congressional campaign.

Regular Troops Withdrawing From Ole Miss

OXFORD, Miss. (AP)—James H. Meredith, Negro student attending the University of Mississippi under federal guard, today criticized the Army and, by implication, the officials of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

In an interview he sought, Meredith complained the Army had inflicted "a dishonor and a disgrace" on Negro soldiers by segregating troops brought into Oxford after the riot that attended days ago.

His other complaint was against what he called "this inflammatory claim" by some people that he had been "picked, selected or chosen by them to integrate the University of Mississippi."

The president of the Mississippi NAACP, Aaron Henry, was reported earlier as saying Meredith was selected from a list of candidates for the desegregation move. Meredith denied this after the report of Henry's statement.

"I have good reason to believe that this and similar accusations have resulted in stronger opposition to me by the students at the university," Meredith said.

"If it were true, must admit that I would think their opposition would be in some ways justified," he said.

Meredith said, "I consider it of utmost importance that the persons who claim to be the Negro leaders would be individuals of unquestioned integrity and not individuals who will make irresponsible statements to gain personal ends."

As for the military, Meredith said that during his first two days on the campus, "the military units looked like American units."

"Since that time the units have been re-segregated. Negroes have been purged from their positions in the ranks," he said.

Meredith said that he complained to "the proper authorities" Thursday, and that the next day he was told the situation would be corrected.

On Monday, he said, "Negro soldiers were indeed seen again among the soldiers. The ones I saw, however, were on a garbage detail truck and unarmed. The white members of the detail were armed. This condition constitutes a dishonor and a disgrace to the hundreds of thousands of Negroes who wear the uniforms of our military services."

He said his conscience would not allow him to go on without "at least letting the Negro soldiers know that I did not like them being dishonored."

Asked whether he thinks the university has failed to discipline students who heckled him, Meredith replied:

"I don't know if the university is disciplining hecklers or not, and I am not seeking to find out."

Meredith said he wanted to thank the federal marshals and the Justice Department for what he called "the fine way" they handled his entering and remaining.

ing in the university.

OXFORD, Miss. (AP)—A flying rock and a crowd of jeering students renewed tensions on the University of Mississippi campus Monday, after James H. Meredith's second week as a student had begun in comparative calm.

The incident occurred at the university cafeteria Monday night after Meredith arrived for dinner. No one was hurt but some broken glass sprinkled on the 29-year-old Negro's table.

Some 270 students jeered and shouted in front of the cafeteria. Earlier, Meredith attended classes without having to walk through crowds of hooting students, a sharp contrast with last week. Two marshals trailed 30 or 40 feet behind.

Meredith's day went quietly until dinner.

Earlier, in the morning, two unidentified white students shook Meredith's hand as he walked toward his Baxter Hall apartment.

Meredith said he expected to settle down to his studies now that distractions were decreasing. He said he was having no academic difficulties because "I have lived under adverse circumstances all my life."

The evening incident lasted only briefly. The rock which shattered a cafeteria window apparently came from the group of students in front.

Marshals hustled Meredith out a back door.

The students then turned their attention to an auto which federal officials had been using and let the air out of its tire. One official yelled that the car was federal property.

The Justice Department, meanwhile, opened its campaign to gain student acceptance of Meredith. Deputy U.S. Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach met with 200 law students and a smaller group of campus leaders. He indicated he was pleased with the outcome.

Katzenbach said he did not ask the students to do anything, but sought to explain and answer questions about the federal government's action in breaking segregation barriers at the 114-year-old university.

It was reported that some of the law students peppered Katzenbach with questions critical of him and Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The Army said it would release another 4,000 federalized Mississippi National Guardsmen to night. This will leave 3,000 of the 11,000 Guardsmen originally mobilized in the Oxford area. Some 7,000 regular Army troops are on duty there.

In Washington, Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., said he counted 20,370 troops on duty in Oxford of 10 a.m. Monday. He called this "outrageous." Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., joined Stennis in denouncing federal action in Mississippi. Rep. Arthur Winstead, D-Miss., called on President Kennedy to release all federalized Guardsmen immediately. Also in Washington, the Su-

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army announced today the first withdrawal of regular forces sent to Mississippi and Tennessee a week ago because of integration riots at the University of Mississippi.

Secretary of the Army Cyrus R. Vance said about 5,400 troops now at Columbus, Miss., and Memphis, Tenn., will leave for their home stations by air and truck.

About 14,000 troops will be left in the vicinity of Oxford, Miss., site of the university and scene of the riots which killed two and injured many.

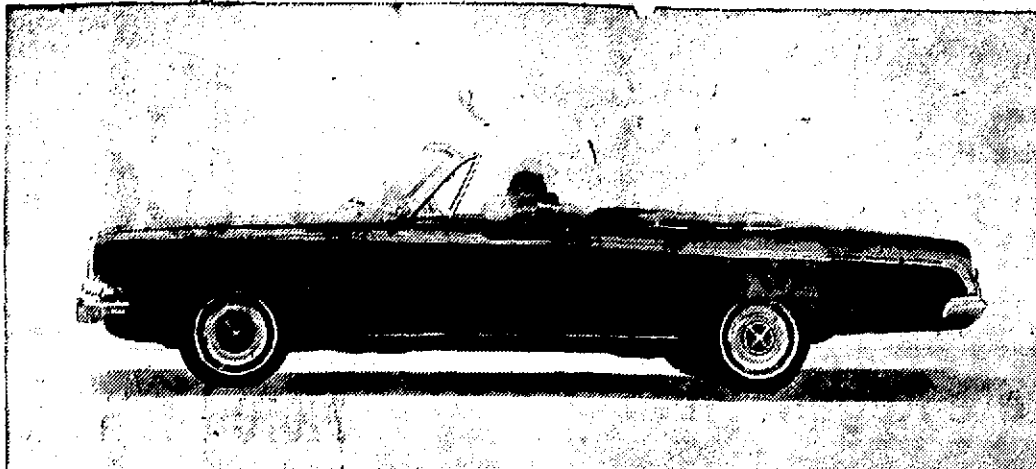

The Army announcement did not identify the units being moved, nor the stations to which they will be returned.

Memphis 87 miles north of Oxford, was used as a staging area. Although the Army has never put out a strength figure, it is known that about 15,000 paratroopers of the 82nd and the 101st Airborne divisions were sent into the Mississippi-Tennessee area last week. The 101st is based at Ft. Campbell, Ky.

In addition, two battle groups totaling about 2,300 infantrymen from the Second Infantry Division, Ft. Benning, Ga., and three Military Police battalions totaling about 1,500 men, plus various engineer, truck company, and other support units, were drawn into the Mississippi situation.

The Army, late last week, released about 3,500 Mississippi National Guardsmen called into federal service after mobs attacked federal marshals attempting to enforce federal court orders for admission of Negro James H. Meredith to the University of Mississippi.

Another 7,500 Mississippi Guardsmen still are under federal orders.

Things Have Changed in Yemen Land

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following story was delayed a day in transmission. Correspondent David Lancashire is now back in Aden.

By DAVID LANCASHIRE

TAIZZ, Yemen (AP)—A young lieutenant lounged back on the silk-cushioned throne of the Imam of Yemen, thumped a submachine gun on his knee and cried: "Long live the republic."

The cry would have meant beheading a month ago.

Now it is repeated by various Yemeni people through the fortress-like stone villages and mud brick plateau towns in the heartland of Yemen, where the army seized power two weeks ago and ended the world's most backward monarchy.

Armed skirmishes have been reported along Yemen's undefined mountain and desert frontier with Saudi Arabia where refugee Yemeni princes, led by the Seif al Islam (Sword of Islam) Al Hassan, pretender to the 1,102-year-old throne, are trying to rally support for a comeback.

But from the southern border to the capital at Sana tribesmen appear delighted with the new republic.

Belying Western intelligence reports that the Yemnis hate foreigners and shoot and plunder everything that moves, villagers wave happily at trucks that bounce along the rutted, dusty road track—the only north-south route in the country. The vehicles bear pictures of the revolt leader, Col. Abdullah Sallal, and U.A.R. President Gamal Abdel Nasser on the windshields.

The first group of Western correspondents to drive into Yemen in six years found the barrier at the forbidden frontier was a plank laid across the road beside a row of thatched tea houses.

A paunchy officer in sarong and with bare feet, two ballpoint pens and a hooklike dagger sticking from his belt, shook hands all around and waved the car past without checking passports.

Until three weeks ago, any visitor needed the Imam's personal permission to enter the country.

Prisoner Deal Appears Set

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro and negotiator James B. Donovan appeared set to complete an agreement today for the release of 1,113 Cuban prisoners seized in the April 1961 invasion.

Responsible sources predicted the prisoners would be flown to Miami in a few days.

Castro's government originally asked $62 million in cash for all the prisoners taken in the Bay of Pigs invasion. About 60 already have been freed. Donovan, a New York attorney negotiating for the families of the prisoners, has said he would offer Castro medicine and food instead of a cash ransom.

The U.S. government may be called on to chip in with some surplus food products, but officials in Washington said there have been no final arrangements on this. Cuban exiles in Miami say the bulk of the food and drug supplies would be contributed by the U.S. public, by relief agencies and by families of the prisoners.

U.S. Control Scoffed at By League

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Several speakers at the Arkansas Municipal League convention Monday scoffed at assertions that acceptance of federal funds for urban renewal would bring federal control of the projects.

Debunkers of the idea included Sen. J. William Fulbright; Mayor W. F. Laman of North Little Rock; B. Finley Vinson, a bank vice president from Little Rock; Roderick A. Bethune of Fort Worth, regional director of the federal Housing and Home Finance Agency, and R. C. Robinson of the Urban Renewal Agency in Washington.

"Has any of you felt the heavy hand of tyranny out of the Fort Worth office?" Fulbright asked. "Has any federal employee tried to tell you how to set up your program?"

Fulbright reviewed several federal programs affecting municipalities and asked the same questions. He then criticized his opponent, Dr. Kenneth Jones of Little Rock, for contending that the federal government is on the road to socialism.

In a lighter vein, Fulbright took note of reports that Republican Sen. John Tower of Texas will visit Arkansas this week to stump for Jones.

He described two recent Texas scandals—the Billie Sol Estes case and the slant-hole oil well controversy—and said: "I don't see how anyone in Texas feels like coming to Arkansas and tell us how to run our business. Or even playing football."

The last was a reference to the fact that the Arkansas Razorbacks have fared successfully against Texas teams in the Southwestern Conference in recent years.

Laman called urban renewal and federally financed public housing programs the salvation of North Little Rock.

Vinson, who was the first director of Little Rock's urban renewal program, said he detected no efforts toward federal control.

Robinson said 28 Arkansas cities have received more than $38 million for urban renewal projects. Bethune discussed in detail how the federal program works.

The two-day convention ends today. On today's agenda is a program of discussion of proposed Amendment 50, which would liberalize taxing powers of cities.

DeBarros Leads Brazil Vote

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—Janio Quadros was running behind today in the race for the governorship of Sao Paulo state—a job he used once before as a springboard to the presidency of Brazil.

Veteran campaigner Adhemar de Barros, 63, a moderate and also a former governor of the rich industrial state, piled up a substantial lead over Quadros and Jose Bonifacio, who was backed by President Joao Goulart.

The unofficial count gave De Barros 16,467 votes; Quadros 145,632; Bonifacio 114,806. Close to 4 million votes were cast in Sao Paulo and Quadros was hoping for a reversal of the early trend.

Quadros resigned the presidency a year ago, charging his hands were tied by forces within and outside Brazil who opposed social reforms and his independent foreign policy.

Leftist forces showed areas of strength in Sunday's balloting for 45 federal senators, 409 members of a new chamber of deputies, 11 governors and new assemblies in Brazil's 22 states.

Portland Placed on JFK Schedule

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy put Portland, Ore., on his campaign schedule today, for Thursday, Oct. 25.

Portland will be one port of call on the weekend of poliolecting which probably will take the President into California for some intensive activity in behalf of Democratic congressional candidates and the bid by Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown to hold on to the governorship against the challenge of former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Presidential press secretary Pierre Salinger said Kennedy will address a night political rally in Portland.

Other details of the weekend still are uncertain, but Salinger said, "It is likely, if not probable, that he will go from Portland to California for a weekend of campaigning."

Asked when Kennedy will go back to Michigan—the President was there last weekend—Salinger replied that he expects Kennedy to return but "I can't give you the date for that."

Food Poisoning

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—An outbreak of food poisoning at Arkansas AM&N College over the weekend was attributed by authorities to a high protein food served at the Saturday noon meal. About 500 students were affected, but none became seriously ill.

Stops SMOKING — Curbs Habit

"I had given up smoking and was very nervous and irritable. My Druggist recommended Alva-Tranquil tablets. Now, only two tablets help relax me, curb my craving for a smoke. No more pack-a-day for me! I finish my day's work feeling good again!" —says M. Brooks, San Francisco, California.

Are you sick and tired of being tense, worried, unable to sleep, emotionally upset, suffering from nervous tension, due to common nervousness? Then, take sedative, calming, A.L.V.A.-TRANQUIL tablets to quickly tranquilize and relax these anxieties, tensions, emotional upsets—for up to 8 wonderful, relaxing hours! Switch to fast-acting, miracle-like A.L.V.A.-TRANQUIL tablets. No aspirin, not habit-forming, 100% safe, taken as directed. Food Arrives for Fallout Shelters

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Survival biscuits and medical kits for public fallout shelters have begun arriving at the Little Rock Air Force Base, the director of plans and operations for the state Civil Defense said Saturday.

Director Richard L. Holt Jr. said 126,000 biscuits and 106 medical kits had been received thus far. The biscuits taste something like a graham cracker, Holt said, and will be the only food offered in shelters.

Holt said more biscuits, medical kits as well as water containers and sanitary kits for the shelters are expected.

In other fallout shelter activity, construction is expected to begin at Huntsville today on an underground shelter. It will serve as a communications and operations center for the State Police and Civil Defense agency in case of nuclear attack.

The shelter will be of concrete, will be 135 feet long, over 38 feet wide and 10 feet high.

DOROTHY DIX

Too Much For Too Little!

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

"Dear Helen: Though not a teenager, I feel naive writing you about my problem. How I hope you can help me! I am in my late 20s and a divorcee. My husband won complete custody of our children. Now I am living with a man who says he loves me. While he has never been married, he's always had plenty of girls."

The other night he telephoned a girl friend of his to come to our apartment and make up a foursome with some man visiting us from another town. My lover took her out instead, and didn't get home until the next morning, drunk and happy.

I know I have no legal right to complain, but I love him. He has not gone out with this other woman since, but admits talking to her on the phone. If I try to leave, he holds me, begs me to stay and declares his love all over again. What shall I do? Will you please send me a copy of your leaflet, "Are You Sure It's Love?" — Confused

Dear Confused: If you really loved this man as much as you say you do, you'd have no need for a leaflet on "Are You Sure It's Love?" Obviously you are not as certain of your feelings as you claim to be, and I believe your instincts are right. Now put them to further good use. Look the truth in the face. You already have two strikes against you in the community where you live. The first is the fact that your ex-husband, not you, was given the custody of your children. The second is the unsavory, unstable life you're now leading. How many more strikes before you're counted out entirely?

Before you lose what's left of your reputation and self-respect, put as much distance as you can, as fast as you can, between this so-called lover and yourself. Each day you continue a relationship of this type adds up to folly, futility, and failure all around.

Dear Helen: We have finally become a nation of motorists. We have drive-in theaters, drive-in markets, drive-in refreshment emporiums, drive-in motels. The boudoir is the only place which is not drive-in, but it will be as soon as elevators can be installed to accommodate this perennial habit. — Casual Observer

Dear Casual: An apt illustration of the point you make appears in the letter from "Confused" above. Her story is a classic example of the tragic results of a lowering of standards of personal conduct.

I do not go along with you, however, when you say that the "drive-in" boudoir will become a nationwide habit like drive-in movies and markets. Despite individual transgressions, Americans as a whole are moral people, and the sanctity of marriage and the home remains a keystone of our national life.

Dear Helen: Every time I read one of your answers about 14-year-old girls wearing lipstick and powder I get madder and madder. I'll have you know that in one of my seventh-grade health books it said it was all right for 13-year-olds to wear lipstick and powder. I am 13 and wear both and they are approved by my mother. I think you're just old-fashioned, and to all those girls you told not to wear make-up I say: Wear it anyway! — Furious

Dear Furious: A mother who allows her teen-ager to dress like a pseudo-adult creates a problem for every other mother in the neighborhood, because most youngsters tend to follow the leader. The mothers should get together and set up ground rules. In this way a parental edict would have behind it the force of local public opinion.

I do not say that rigid formulas must be applied. There is no magic hour when suddenly, overnight, something that was all wrong for a teen-ager becomes all right. The graduation into grown-up habits must be just that, a gradual process. But a wise mother will insist that for each added concession she makes on dates, clothes, make-up, and so on, her youngster must show a corresponding increase in responsibility and a willingness not to abuse the newly acquired privileges.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Manners and Young People."

Rain Dumped on Areas in Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A line of showers moved west to east across the state Sunday, dumping as much as 2.17 inches of rain in the southern section.

But the U.S. Weather Bureau at Little Rock said the moisture level was down considerably today and sunny skies should prevail for the next five days.

There will be scattered showers in the state, mostly in the south, during the next five days, but mainly temperatures will be in the 80s under mostly clear skies, the Weather Bureau said.

Amth recorded the most rain Sunday, the 2.17 inches Arkadelphia had two inches, Sparkman 1.93, Glenwood 2.03 and Warren 2.06.

Around the state Sunday, Walnut Ridge and Harrison had only traces of rain. Fort Smith recorded .23 inches, Memphis .75, El Dorado .10, Pine Bluff .32, Texarkana .79 and Little Rock .43.

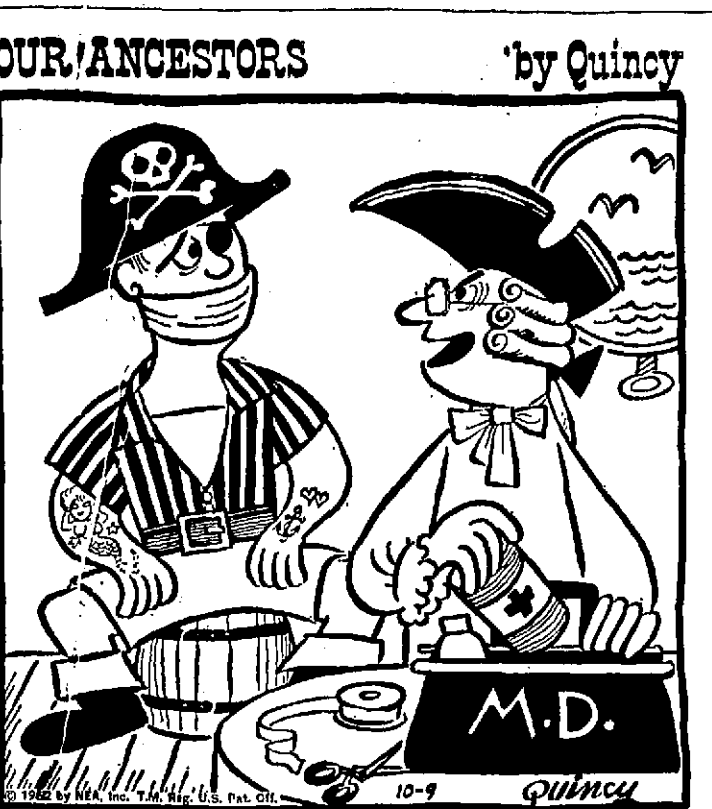

Yet temperatures remained fairly warm during the night.

Some minimum temperatures included 62 at Walnut Ridge, 53 at Fayetteville, 57 at Harrison, 61 at Fort Smith, 70 at El Dorado, 67 at Pine Bluff, 73 at Texarkana, 69 at Little Rock and 68 at Memphis.

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for the kindness and sympathy shown us during the loss of our loved one.

Deputy Youngblood hurried up the street toward Pendergrass's bank. The town seemed empty. He walked in the dirt of the street, instead of using the board walks because he wanted to make as little noise as possible.

When he reached the front of the bank, he saw what seemed to be a slight movement of the door, as if it had been open a small crack and now was being closed. Youngblood sprang up on the wooden sidewalk and set his shoulder against the door as he wrenched on the knob. The door yielded.

Defending national champion Alabama shot back into the No. 1 position in the weekly Associated Press college football poll today while Ohio State tumbled all the way down to No. 10.

The Crimson Tide, replaced by Ohio State a week ago, compiled 445 points to outdistance Texas, in the No. 2 spot, and Penn State, which moved up to No. 3. Texas had 422 points and Penn State 321.

The points are compiled on a basis of 10 for a first place, 9 for a second and so on. A nationwide panel of sports writers and sportscasters voted.

Anybody Can Win in 4-AA District

By BILL C. SIMMONS
Associated Press Staff Writer

It should be an easy week for the Class AA's unbeaten teams this week—there are only four of them left.

The two in Region 2AA tackle foes with poorer records this week. Region 3AA's kingpin, Conway, Memphis against Wynne.

Subiaco surprised Harrison in Region 1AA last week, but the Trojans go against league-leading Rogers this week. However, Carl Grummer, a tackle switched to fullback, pulled Subiaco through last week—in his first game in the backfield.

Meanwhile, Van Buren will try to knock some of the gleam off Fayetteville and Springdale takes on Siloam Springs.

Conway hasn't had trouble with anyone this year, and Region 4AA's oft-whipped Malvern isn't expected to bother the Wampus Cats.

Conway leads Region 3AA, but a more interesting pairing has Russellville at Benton. This is expected to be a good match between Ronnie South of Russellville and Benton's Alvin Jones.

Other 3AA games have Jacksonville after Little Rock Catholic, Fuller at Mabelvale, and weaklings Searcy and Sylvan Hills playing Batesville and Cabot, respectively.

Region 4AA no longer has an unbeaten team, after Crossett's surprise 7-0 victory over Hope last week. The Bobcats had been running wild, but Tommy Lane Smith's 10-yard scoring jaunt for Crossett put all the points on the scoreboard in the first quarter.

Now, Crossett is paired with Camden, which stumbled into a 6-6 tie with Malvern in a rough week for 4AA leaders.

Camden Fairview clobbered Arkadelphia and showed heretofore unseen strength — which will be tested by Hope this week. In other region games Magnolia travels to Haynesville, La., and Smackover will measure itself against Arkadelphia.

NEW YORK (AP) — Managers Ralph Houk of New York and Alvin Dark of San Francisco agreed today that the World Series, now all even at two victories apiece, would go the limit of seven games.

Of course, the rival skipper disagreed on the winner.

Although the Giants pulled even Monday with a 7-3 victory in the fourth game, in which the brilliant Whitey Ford was lifted after six innings, Houk said he wasn't worried. He said he planned no changes in the lineup and confirmed that Ralph Terry, his 23rd game winning right-hander, would be the pitcher.

Dark's choice was Jack Sanford, the 24-game winning right-hander who defeated Terry 2-0 with a three-hitter in the second game of the series.

"I'm not worried about the way our boys are hitting," said Houk, whose team was held to nine hits by four Giant pitchers Monday and has hit only one home run in four games. "We're hitting the ball, all right, but not to the right places."

Dark was just as optimistic. He pointed out he had predicted as far back as three weeks ago that a Giant-Yankee World Series would go the limit. At the time the Giants were four games behind Los Angeles with only nine games left to play.

"I told one of my players (Jose Pagan) that we had 19 more games to play," Dark said, "nine in the regular schedule, three in the playoffs and seven in the World Series. Naturally, I still feel that way and I think we'll win."

Dark had planned to pitch Billy O'Dell, who lost the opener to the Yankees, but the southpaw was needed in relief Monday after the Giants took a 6-2 lead in the seventh on Chuck Hiller's grand slam homer off relief pitcher Marshall Bridges.

Jim Coates, a right-hander, began the inning after Ford was taken out for a pinch hitter in the bottom of the sixth as Houk tried for a big inning. Coates gave way to Bridges after giving up a walk to Jim Davenport and a one-out

Broyles Has Praise for His Porkers

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — A wave of praise rolled out of coach Frank Broyles Monday in the wake of the Razorbacks' 42-14 thrashing of Texas Christian University.

Broyles had good words for end Hoover Evans of Fayetteville, wingback George Walker of LeLand, Miss., and wingback Mike Parker of Hugo, Okla.

"It looked like the Hoover of last year," Broyles said after reviewing films of the Porkers' first Southwest Conference victory of the season.

"He was reckless on defense," Broyles said. "When Ken Hatfield went 71 yards with a punt for a touchdown Hoover wiped out three men with one block."

Broyles said Parker aided on the touchdown gallop, too, by clearing one man upfield, getting up, and cutting down the last man in pursuit of Hatfield.

Of Walker Broyles said, "He ran like a steamroller."

The coaches received their scouting report Monday and the players were to receive theirs today.

Two Razorbacks were on the sidelines at practice Monday. Jim John, an end from Stuttgart, watched practice after returning to the U of A. He has been out of all games this season with a ruptured blood vessel in his nose. There was no word on when he might resume practice.

Billy Joe Moody, the outstanding monster man — fullback from North Little Rock, was nursing a sprained foot. He was on crutches during practice.

Broyles said John had lost 20 pounds and would be put on a special high protein diet today to help him regain strength.

Broyles said the film of the 190 Arkansas-Baylor game will be shown to the players—for coaching purposes.

The Bears upended Arkansas that Dad's Day, 28-14, one of the most startlingly defeats handed the Razorbacks since their skunk of Southwest Conference titles began. That was the year Broyles altered his defense and was sorry for it.

The film will be used to show Baylor's offense and defense—and to show the Razorbacks what not to do against John Bridges' team.

At Waco Monday the Bears started their second week of pre-
